

Congratulations to Bryn White – Now a Haynes Benefits Attorney!!

During our 20th Anniversary year, Haynes Benefits continues to grow with the addition of our newest attorney, Bryn White.

Haynes Benefits is proud to announce that Bryn, who has worked as a Law Clerk for our law firm these past two years, has passed the Missouri bar exam and is continuing to work for Haynes Benefits PC as an Associate attorney. We are thrilled to have Bryn continue her exemplary work assisting our clients with plan preparation, administration, and compliance. Bryn is a skilled researcher and takes pride in her ability to think critically and problem solve with innovative solutions, and she is excited to be joining the team as a newly graduated Associate focusing on health benefits law.

As an Associate at Haynes Benefits PC, Bryn assists clients on a broad range of health and welfare benefit matters, including plan documentation, risk management, and proper administration. She also supports clients in interpretation of plan provisions, statutes, and regulations regarding various employee benefit plan issues to ensure legal compliance. Bryn has gained extensive experience in the Employee Benefits field throughout her last two years working as a Law Clerk.

Bryn has had a lifelong interest in health. Combining her interests in Human Resources and Health, she has found great appreciation for health benefits.

After graduating from Kansas State University with honors, with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, focusing on Human Resources and Organizational Management, Bryn earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Missouri - Kansas City School of Law. During law school, Bryn served as the Submissions and Symposia Editor of the UMKC Law Review. Prior to joining Haynes Benefits, Bryn worked as an In-House Law Clerk with a Fortune 500 company.

Bryn lives in the Kansas City area with her husband. Outside of the office, she enjoys traveling and reading.

Please join us in welcoming her to the team!
